Air Raid Evacuation Practice At White Rock School

Under the supervision of Post-warden Davis and in the presence of District chief warden Marshall, a committee of the White Rock A.R.P. members conducted, with the co-operation and help of the High School Principal, Mr. Sanford, and his staff, an air raid evacuation practice was carried out on Wednesday afternoon.

The signal was given for the test at 3 o'clock when some of the older pupils, who had been specially trained for that purpose, immediately took up their posts as door-wardens at the exit doors in order to keep check on any possible pushing and crowding. From every exit pupils poured from the school and made for the nearest exits from the grounds; in less than two minutes the school buildings and grounds were left without a single pupil.

The A.R.P. committee were highly satisfied with the results which, it was agreed, reflected much credit on the Principal and teachers for good training and organization work. There was no sign of confusion and the evacuation was carried out "on the double". Post warden Bloom and warden Stuthren were other A.R.P. members of the evacuation committee for the occasion.

O.A.P.O. To Hear L Shepherd MLA

The regular monthly meeting of the White Rock branch of the Old Age Pensioners' organization will take place at the White Rock hotel on Wednesday, June 2nd, at 2 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Mr. Len Shepherd, M.L.A., who has been chosen for the subject of the interesting topic of "Canada, to-day and to-morrow".

The entertainment committee have prepared a musical program, consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. C. R. Bonneton, and community singing.

This organization is doing a great work on behalf of the Old Age Pensioners and Mother's pensioners, and it is hoped that all members and friends will be present to support the work.

LAWN BOWLING

Victoria Day saw bowlers turn out in goodly numbers, and the games were enjoyed by all, which little relaxation better than one to carry on the duties of these strenuous times. Semahmoos Club members were very pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Starek, of our own Sun, also Mr. and Mrs. Williams, as well as Messrs. Robins and Chisholm of the West Point Grey I. B. C. of Vancouver. Lunch was served at noon and light refreshments at 4 p.m. The greens being in good shape, we have no hesitation in inviting visitors and prospective members to join with us and keep fit.

DRESSMAKING SHOP

Dr. Hindson, formerly of Vancouver, where he was well known as a ladies tailor and dressmaker, is now located in White Rock to carry on the same line of business, and has opened up a shop in the Raitt building east of the Bookfield Market, where he will be pleased to see any one wanting this class of work done.

THE GREAT KRUPPS ARMAMENT WORKS, ESSEN. BEFORE IT WAS BOMBED BY BRITISH BOMBERS

Picture shows: Annotated picture of the great Krupp works at Essen before the heavy British bombing raid on March 5, 1942. The raid, one of the heaviest yet inflicted on industrial Germany by R. A. F. bombers, was outstandingly successful. A film taken during the action showed the target as a sea of fire. Reconnaissance pictures taken afterwards showed great devastation. Annotations are as follows: 1. Assembly shop, 23.4.4. Machine shops, 5. Administration offices, 7. Electricity Works (foundry), 8. Furnaces. All these objectives were seen to be gutted, when reconnaissance planes flew over Essen after the raid.

Where Is The Trouble?

It does not seem logical when we are asked to save and grow food to help the war effort that according to reports the amount of sugar available for home preserving will not be sufficient to take care of a lot of the fruit, with the result that a great quantity will be wasted unless some other method is devised to preserve it.

This is a fruit growing country, and a lot of it need not be wasted if only it can find its way to the prairies, there is always a big demand for fruit. Packers have set a standard on fruit that is shipped out to keep their reputation up, but surely under present conditions a little relaxation along those lines would not do any harm. More likely a great deal of good. When normal times return the standard can be raised back again.

We have to do without a lot of things because they are wanted for the war effort, but here is something, but for the jams and preserves needed for the forces, is liable to go to waste for lack of being able to put it to proper use. A little insight into these things might be helpful.

It is not a very elegant sight to see all the litter of paper and paper plates scattered all over our main street, especially after a holiday.

It is about a week since a shell of a building was placed on a vacant lot and no attempt so far has been made to straighten it around or put it into shape for what ever it is intended to be. This also is not a pleasing sight.

The final meeting of the after-noon bridge club was held at the home of Mrs. Vidal. Since the war started the club has forwarded the proceeds to the Red Cross, this year the amount is $50.00.

Big crowd enjoyed the 24th May weather being warm enough for getting a sun tan, also picnicking on the beach.

The dance at the Blue Moon from 12 to 3 was an usual well attended and a splendid time reported.

Theatre News

Immortal Sergeant is shown at the beginning of the week. This is the story of a shy, introspective man—a writer—who enlists in the British army because he wouldn't be "able to look a bowl of soup in the face after the war" if he didn't. He sinks his personality under a willingness to take orders until his sergeant is killed on a desert patrol, carrying out what he considers the simple task of keeping himself and his companions alive, he captures an oasis from the Germans, and, to his amazement, finds himself a hero. The love story is kept alive by means of flash-backs to his experiences in England. With Henry Fonda, Maureen O'Hara and Thomas Mitchell.

Also Man in the Trunk. A screw-ball mystery—a shoot watches the mystery of his death solved. He found out a lot about his friends and family after he was dead. With Lynne Roberts, Raymond Walburn, George Holmes and J. Carroll Nash.

The week concludes with A Yank at Eton. A prep school-gridiron wizard is transplanted to England when his widowed mother marries a Britisher. To please her, he enters Eton where he finally winds up a hero. With Mickey Rooney, Edmund Gwenn, Ian Hunter and Freddie Bartholomew.

Also Dr. Gillespie's New Assistant. His associates were worried about his weak heart but, as usual it turned out to be a heart of gold, as skeptical old Dr. Gillespie brings health and happiness to unfortunate. With Lionel Barrymore, Van Johnson, Susan Peters and Keye Luke.

WINDOW SCREENS
TO BE OF NYLON

Window screens that will not rust or require painting are a distinct possibility when nylon again becomes available for peacetime use, according to C-I-L chemists. These screens will be woven of single heavy strands of nylon monofilament into strong, smooth screens through which a sharp-pointed pencil can be pushed without causing damage. The hole can be closed merely by rubbing the fingers over the displaced strands. The screen can be colored permanently by adding pigments to molten nylon. The material is flexible and suitable for roll screens.

Formerly a British lawyer in Paris, Arthur Vanson, 55, has reached London after escaping from France, relates The London Evening News.

Here is his first reaction to wartime London:

"What luxuries you have—fire, milk, tea and shops full of food that I have scarcely seen for two years. Food conditions in France when I left were appalling, and the poor people, generally speaking never have a square meal."

Industrial Conciliation
and Arbitration Act
Amendment Act, 1943

AMENDMENTS made to the above Act at the recent Legislative Session provide for the extension of the privileges of Trade Unions. The first principle of the Act, which provides that employees may bargain through any form of organization they desire so long as their bargaining representatives are elected by a majority vote of the employees, still stands. Bargaining representatives, however, need not be employees. By the amendments to the Act where the majority of the employees affected are members of one Trade Union, a Trade Union shall have the right to bargain for all the employees affected, either through the officers of the Trade Union, or through such officers as the Union may elect for this purpose.

Provision is also made that where there are employees who are members of a craft group and are so organized, these employees may bargain through their craft organization, in which case they will not have a vote in the affairs affecting the balance of the employees.

A Trade Union is defined as a national or international organization of employees or a local branch chartered by and in good standing with any such body.

To be a member of a Trade Union under the amendment a person must have been a member in good standing in a Trade Union for not less than three months.

Provision is made that an employer may not dominate or interfere with the formation or administration of any organization of employees, or contribute financially or offer support. The employer can, however, make arrangements with his employees' representatives, whether they be a committee of officers of a Trade Union, whereby bargaining negotiations between employer and employees may be conducted on company's time without deducting this time from the earning time of the employee.

Arbitration awards are not enforceable. Employees may, by vote of the employees, accept or reject an arbitration award but they cannot take strike action until fourteen days after have accepted or rejected an arbitration award. Employers cannot lock their men out until fourteen days after they have notified the Labour Department that they have either accepted or rejected an award.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop and Miss R. G. Claxton, of Vancouver, were visitors at the home of Capt. and Mrs. F. Hassall over the holiday week end.

L.A.C. Lloyd Smithman writes that he has just made his trial trip up as navigator and was a success. Lloyd certainly has not wasted any time for he only joined the R.C.A.F. last October.

Mr. and Mrs. McCrea, who have sold their home in Mission, have bought property in White Rock, to be near their daughter, Mrs. L. Friend. Mrs. Friend is recovering from a serious footpalsy.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle, formerly owners of the Staffer store, and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, former proprietors of the Fish and Chip shop just east of Hanslow's garage, were in White Rock Sunday renewing old acquaintances.

The final meeting of the Women's Institute until fall will be held on Tuesday, June 8th, at 2:30 p.m. in the White Rock hotel. The feature for this meeting will be Grandmother's Day. Roy, call will be "a made over garment".

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the final game of the what drives held at the Army and Navy hall held on Thursday, May 13th. The highest scores for the evening were: Ladies, Mrs. Metheral, 146; girls, H. Hewitt, 147; highest for the series, Ladies, Mrs. A. Phillips, 1113; girls, H. Hewitt, 1055. At the conclusion of the game refreshments were served.

Holiday seekers had evidently saved up their gas coupons to take advantage of the 24th of May to come down to White Rock. Busses were crowded in taking visitors back and forth. The eating places did a good business. Buses were out on the water, and many were in bathing. At the Bowling green enthusiasts had a pleasant time with their mixed games.

CEDAR CHEST
The drawing for the Army and Navy cedar chest will take place Wednesday, June 2nd, at 8 p.m. sharp in their hall also for the table centre and napkins. ARMY BADGES
Many thrilling stories he behind the Army badges which some soldiers collect as a hobby. Last year some of these stories were told in Canadian newspapers and radio stations in a dramatic series entitled "Badges of Honor". But the soldier wears other, invisible badges, which are marks of character and ability and a vital part of the trained soldier. And so a new series of Badges of Honor programmes is soon to be released to Canadian radio stations stressing such "badges" as courage, initiative and physical fitness. The programmes were written by members of the Canadian Army and transcribed for release to 49 radio stations across the country. The stories come right from the fighting fronts of this war and the First Great War. Radio actor Howard Millson, a former member of the Imperial Forces, plays the central character in the series, with informed and civilian actors in support.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Judicious cropping produced this striking cut picture. Only a small part of the complete snapshot was used.

MANY a dull snapshot can be made into a salon type picture, simply by trimming away useless material—or, better, by making out superfluous details when an enlargement is made.

Judicious trimming can often change the whole mood and meaning of a picture. Most pictures, as taken, include details that do not belong—surplus material at top, bottom, or sides that blur the picture's meaning and takes away its "punch."

The picture presented here is an excellent example. In the complete negative a mass of unessential surplus detail distracted attention from the real picture. Only when the full print was trimmed, or "cropped" severely, did the kitten stand out as a cute and playful little fellow with direct and questioning eyes. Lines that tended to lead the eye out of the picture, and detract from the principal subject, were eliminated or subdued.

NATIONAL

SERVICE

Freedom's Fires Must Be Fed Our COAL!

CANADIANS must dig and deliver coal that we may sell convoys, power vital war plants, keep our railroads rolling, preserve the nation's health!

The coal mining industry—miners and management alike—have done wonders to provide coal, but they need help. More workers must be provided, or we fail—possibly fail—in this grim hour. Nature has been generous but we must help ourselves. Our mines are rich, but undermanned. By Proclamation, His Excellency the Governor General in Council has declared that labour supply for coal mines ranks as a national emergency. Further, in order to provide manpower for coal, the Governor in Council has issued an Order in Council aimed at swelling the flow of coal from mine to firepot.

This Order is of vital interest to everyone in Canada. Every Canadian should read and study its provisions, to see whether it demands any action on his part:

- 1 EVERY EMPLOYER, REGARDLESS OF HIS INDUSTRY, must advise his employees of these Regulations, and he must assist in discovering whether any of his employees have had previous experience as coal mine workers.
- 2 EVERY EMPLOYEE, REGARDLESS OF HIS INDUSTRY, who has had previous experience as a coal mine worker, must report that fact to his employer not later than Tuesday, May 25th, 1943.
- 3 A "COAL MINE WORKER" FOR THESE PURPOSES is anyone who, since January 1st, 1925, has worked under provincial certificate or license in or around a coal mine, or who, since the same date, has been employed for a total of at least 24 months in the production of coal (except at office work).
- 4 EVERY EMPLOYER, NOT A COAL MINE OPERATOR, must report in writing to a Selective Service Officer not later than Tuesday, June 1st, 1943, full details on any of his employees who are ex-coal mine workers.
- 5 SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICERS ARE AUTHORIZED to require ex-coal mine workers to report for interview and to accept work at a coal mine.
- 6 SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICERS MAY REQUIRE any man in any employment, if subject to Mobilization Regulations but rejected for Military Training, and certain others exempted from Military Training, to accept employment at a coal mine.
- 7 NO COAL MINE OPERATOR may terminate the services of any coal mine worker without written permission from a Selective Service Officer.
- 8 NO COAL MINE WORKER may leave employment at a coal mine without written permission from a Selective Service Officer.
- 9 EVERY EX-COAL MINE WORKER, returning to the industry under these Regulations, will be paid wages at the established rate for the job at which he is placed; and the Government will pay wages of 40 cents an hour, 3 hours a day and 48 hours a week, to any ex-coal mine worker required to leave his present employment under these provisions, but not placed immediately at coal mining.
- 10 A BOARD ALLOWANCE of not more than $7.50 a week may be paid an ex-coal mine worker now returning to a coal mine, if required to live away from the residence of his dependents.
- 11 PRESENT AND FUTURE COAL MINE WORKERS will be granted postponement from Military Training to February 1st, 1944, by virtue of their occupation; and no coal mine worker will be accepted for voluntary enlistment in the Armed Forces of Canada, prior to February 1st, 1944, except under permit to enlist from a Selective Service Officer.
- 12 NO EMPLOYER IN CANADA, EXCEPT A COAL MINE OPERATOR, may solicit for employment or hire any ex-coal mine worker.

Such is the substance of the new regulations. Full details may be had at any Employment and Selective Service Office. If these provisions require action on your part, you are urged in the national interest to act immediately. Severe penalties are provided for non-compliance, but the Government relies on the co-operation of the citizens of Canada to make prosecution unnecessary by prompt action as required. This is a grave emergency. Act! if you can.

Origin of Army Ranks

Why is a private called a private? And was a sergeant major always a non-commissioned officer? The Oxford Dictionary and Fortescue's History of the British Empire supply the answers.

A private was originally a private soldier, called up by his liege lord in medieval times. The word is derived from the Latin privatus and was first used with its modern meaning about 1575.

The next highest rank, lance-corporal, comes from a French form of the word lance, poete, a mounted soldier whose horse has been put out of action and fought with his lance on foot. He was considered superior to the infantrymen and had some authority over them, but not permanently. The word corporal comes from the Italian caporal.

Sergeant (Latin sergentum) Old French—sergent) meant a captain soldier in 1490. It was applied to a tenant who had military service under a knight.

A sergeant-major was originally a field officer next in rank to a lieutenant-colonel and corresponded partly to the modern rank of major and partly to adjutant. Another derivation is seen in the present rank of major-general. The term did not mean a non-commissioned officer before 1802.

The rank of captain has been used in the French army since 1375. It is a derivative of the Italian capo, capitano, or head of a square, block of soldiers. The captain's locum tenens or lieutenant was instituted as a rank by Charles VII in 1444.

The head of bands of foot soldiers in France about 1524 came to be called a colonel. The men were under his regiment or command, and so the word came to be used as "colonel-and-soldier's regiment."

The colonel had little time to look after the training of his men, so this was delegated to his lieutenant, who of course became a lieutenant-colonel.

General, from the Latin Genetrix, was a term applied to an officer of superior rank and extended command in 1576. Brigadier came from the Italian brigata and French brigade (strife, contention) and was first used in its modern meaning about 1678.

A marshal was originally a high official in the household of a medieval king, prince or noble, who usually had charge of military affairs. The word was marshal in Old French.

COUNTRY EDITOR

(New York Times)

The old-fashioned country editor still lives and the nation is safe. His name is Carl Broome and he edits the Brantley Enterprise, a Georgia weekly. His draft board showed some curiosity as to how he filled in his time, and he told them. He wrote down his duties as they came into his mind. Scattered out a little, the list shows what goes on.

Mr. Broome writes the editorials, writes the advertising and collects and edits the news that goes into his paper. Then he sets or types, makes it up in a page, prints it and wraps the bundles for mailing. Then he washes and distributes the type. He keeps books, has bills to pay and must therefore collect pay for advertising and solicit, and collect for, subscriptions. The process, newspaper and job, get of order and he fixes them. The inky type out of order and he fixes that.

"In my spare time," he concludes, "I hunt and fish and play checkers." A wretched life, no doubt. But Mr. Broome wouldn't give it up for a castle in Spain, and half the metropolitan newspaper men in the United States, as they read the delectable details of his life, will weep with envy.
